

CONGREGATIONAL meeting

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7 AT 9:50AM

ELDERS

Class of 2025

Paul Farrell

Paul and his wife Jean have been members at FPC for 20 years. Jean served as an elder and their two children Zachary and Mackenzie both attended preschool here. Over the years, Paul has served on the Preschool Committee, Administration Committee and the Pastor Nominating Committee. His family continues to participate in various activities from Soup Kitchen, Rise Against Hunger, Youth Group and mission trips.

Brad Hunter

Brad Hunter and his wife Cameron have been FPC members since September 2019 after moving from Charlotte, NC. He is active in the Sticky Faith class and has served as a volunteer with NEST. He is also an usher at the 11:00am service. Brad and Cameron have two sons Plyler (16) and Foard (13).

Alex Kenefic

Alex and her husband Chris have been members of FPC since they heard the bell tower on a walk when they first moved to Norfolk in 2011. She has been involved in the Soup Kitchen, Women's Bible Study, and MOPS. It has been a joy watching her three children be baptized and grow under the Children's Ministry here as well.

Carl Leimer

Carl Leimer and his wife Karen have been members of FPC since 2008. Along the way, sons Caleb and Luke were born and baptized into the church. Carl has served as a deacon and continues to serve as a teacher in the Basic Bible class. The Leimers enjoy volunteering for many of the family-oriented opportunities that FPC makes available and look forward to all that the Lord has in store for the church.

Emily Webb

Emily Webb and her husband Jarratt joined FPC 13 years ago. They have two sons, Tucker and Parke who have been raised as part of the FPC family. Emily serves in the Meals For Moms ministry and NEST. She has also been a faithful volunteer with the First Presbyterian Preschool for many years.

TRUSTEE

Class of 2025

Cline Reasor

Cline and his wife Jennifer have been members at FPC for 17 years. Cline has served FPC in various capacities, including ushering, youth leadership, men's ministries, Session membership, and currently as Treasurer. Cline and Jennifer have four children: Cora (10), Caroline (9), Colin (6) and Caleb (1).

2022 NOMINATING COMMITTEE

members-at-large

Kristen Abney
Tamatha Burton
Brooke Garrett
Peggy Mackey
Page Weaver
Jim Wood

DEACONS

Class of 2025

Greg Alvord

Greg Alvord grew up in Zimbabwe, Africa, emigrated to the United States in 1988, and lived in Florida until February 2019 when he and his wife Deb moved to live in Chesapeake. He was brought to FPC by his daughters Andrea and Nicola. Greg has a great compassion to serve those congregants in crisis and is a Stephen Minister. Greg has been involved with the Basic Bible Class, singing in the choir, feeding the homeless and attending Men's Breakfast and Retreat.

Erica Barron

Erica Barron joined FPC after attending a church picnic in 2013. She has worked in education her entire adult life, and FPC offered her a chance to use her teaching skills to lead small groups and teach Sunday School. The teaching experiences impacted her spiritual growth tremendously and she's grateful for the opportunity to give back to FPC and all our members by serving FPC in a new and rewarding way. Erica has two children who are involved in the FPC youth group: Ethan (16) and Ashleigh (13).

Pamela Brangan

Pam Brangan has been a member of FPC for over 25 years. She has participated in the NEST program, Vacation Bible School, the Soup Kitchen and a Nicaragua mission trip. She also serves as an usher and greeter. She values the fellowship in Christ at FPC and hopes as a deacon to continue to contribute in whatever way God leads.

Sarah Lieberum

Sarah Lieberum found FPC eight years ago after moving to Norfolk to start a new chapter with her then-boyfriend, Ron. They knew they had found a new home after just one visit. Since then, they've gotten married and had a baby - and FPC has been a part of it all. Sarah began participating with a small women's group and the young adult group (who became family). She's been active with the youth, hosting a girls small group, participating in many lock-ins, and serving as a confirmation mentor multiple times.

Eunice Whitehurst

Eunice counts one of her greatest joys as being a member of FPC for 24 years. She has served on the Outreach Committee, the Worship Committee, the Soup Kitchen, the choir, the Prayer Warrior Team, the Diaconate, the Session, the Video-Prison Ministry and has taught at Vacation Bible School.

(Ashley) Robin Winn

Robin Winn and his wife Andrea have been a members of FPC for eight years. He was originally a member in 1985 and came back to the church because he missed the fellowship here at FPC. Robin loves the Basic Bible class and the friends that he has made at the church. He enjoyed the Men's Bible study on Sunday nights and is hoping to restart that group. His desire is to serve the single and divorced members of FPC.

Sheryl Wood

Sheryl Wood has been a member of FPC since 1999. For ten years she worked as the Mission Coordinator for the church. Currently, Sheryl remains active in local and foreign missions. For many years, she has taught in the Norfolk City Jail and enjoys being there for the women of the jail. She is currently spending time with the new URC jail initiative. Sheryl is also on the prayer team and a member of the Chancel Choir.